Loughlin Endorsed by Lincoln Republican Town Committee

John Loughlin, State Representative and Republican candidate for Congress today announced that he has been endorsed by the Lincoln Republican Town Committee.

“I grew up in Lincoln, so this endorsement means a lot to me,” Loughlin said. “I look forward to representing Lincoln and the rest of the first congressional district next year in Washington.”

“In a unanimous vote we have endorsed John Loughlin for the US House of Representatives,” said Michael Napolitano, chairman of the Lincoln Republican Town Committee. “John is not only the best candidate for Congress this district has had in many years, but because he grew up here we can speak to his integrity and know how hard he will work for the people of this area.”

“Given the economic climate in our country and the fact that Congress continues to try and ram a bad health care bill down our throats, this election is an important one,” Napolitano added. “Our members of Congress are not listening to their constituents and are clearly not representing the citizens of Rhode Island. We wholeheartedly endorse John Loughlin for Congress and look forward to working with him in the future.”
