Loughlin Campaign Piles up Endorsements

John Loughlin, State Representative and Republican candidate for Congress today announced that he has been endorsed by fifteen Republican Town Committee Chairs.

“I am so grateful to these town chairs for their support,” said Loughlin. “While this campaign is a big tent -- and we will win in November with the support of Independents and Democrats -- I appreciate the overwhelming support of the local Republican chairs.”

To Whom It May Concern:

We the undersigned Rhode Island Republican Town Committee Chairmen, endorse, Representative John Loughlin as our candidate for the U. S. Congress District 1. John has been a responsive legislator. His record in the Rhode Island Legislature proves his commitment to the ideals of the Republican Party. He has demonstrated his belief in lower taxes, a strong military, the need for national security, and smaller government. He recognizes the need for citizens to be self reliant and has cosponsored bills to protect consumers. John Loughlin is a candidate that believes in traditional values and has displayed the courage to fight for these beliefs.
