Loughlin Campaign Calls on Cicilline to Debate Five Times

“In addition to participating in the three televised debates – which are invitations we had accepted before reading the press release from the Cicilline camp this morning – we call on Mayor Cicilline to accept the invitations to debate on WPRO and WHJJ,” said Cara Cromwell, John Loughlin’s Campaign Manager.

“The voters of this district will be best served when they have the opportunity to hear the candidates exchange ideas in a number of forums, across a variety of outlets. It will be clear after these debates that John Loughlin is the only candidate in the race that wants to chart a new course for America that cuts spending, lowers taxes and reduces the deficit while David Cicilline will be just another rubber stamp for Nancy Pelosi’s big government agenda,” added Cromwell.
